

NOTICE:

Franklin County Board of Commissioners Public Hearing & Regular Board Meeting scheduled for April 5, 2021 is cancelled.

Pilgrim's Pride has withdrawn its application for the property associated with the proposed rendering plant within Franklin County. The applicant has indicated they are not abandoning the overall project and has stated that they are looking to renew conversations at a later date for consideration. The County is thankful for the participation of the citizens throughout this process.